

- Significant reduction in surgery time
- Improved success from reduced variability of manual modifications required for other products
- Standardised surgical technique
- Rapid, full and permanent integration to host tissue
- No resorption
- Resists migration

Clinical Uses

- Enucleation
- Evisceration
- Implant replacement